 - Portion B, a portion of Portion 25 of the farm Fourteen streams 311 in extent 87.4045 ha, and

- The Consolidation of Portion B (in extent 87.4045 ha) with Portion 26 of the Farm Fourteen Streams 311 (in extent 10.6435 ha) , the consolidated extent being 98.0480 ha as depicted in Annexure A7

4. MOTIVATION

Motivation for the Subdivision of Portion 25 of the Farm Fourteen Streams 311, Warrenton, Northern Cape:

1. Background

Portion 25 of the Farm Fourteen Streams 311, situated outside Warrenton in the Northern Cape Province, is currently intersected and physically divided into three distinct land parcels by the aqueduct infrastructure of the Vaalharts Water Scheme. This aqueduct and associated servitudes create natural and legal divisions which render the property fragmented in terms of practical land use and ownership.

2. Legal Context

In terms of Act 70 of 1970, the subdivision of agricultural land requires approval by the Minister of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development. The proposed subdivision seeks to formalise the physical and functional fragmentation of Portion 25 and align ownership and use with existing realities on the ground and statutory requirements.

3. Motivation for Subdivision

(a) Portion B – Servitude Area to be Donated to National Government

Portion B of the proposed subdivision comprises the land currently encumbered by servitudes held by the National Government in terms of conditions B, C and D in Deed of Transfer T2239/2018.

As this portion is already technically under the control of National Government, the owners intend to donate Portion B formally to the State.

This subdivision will regularise ownership, avoid potential conflicts in land management, and ensure that the land occupied by critical water infrastructure is vested in the responsible authority.

(b) Portion A – Incorporation into Church-Owned Land (Portion 26)

Portion A represents the parcel of land located between the aqueduct and the Vaal River.

This land is not viable for independent agricultural use due to its restricted access and limited extent.

The Roman Catholic Church, which owns Portion 26 adjoining Portion A, already conducts institutional and religious activities in the area. The intention is to consolidate Portion A with Portion 26 to expand and support these existing activities.

This consolidation will ensure more efficient land use, contribute to local social development, and support institutional functions serving the community.

(c) Remaining Extent of Portion 25 – Agricultural Use

After excision of Portions A and B, the remaining extent of Portion 25 will measure approximately 1 046 ha.

This remainder is a viable and sustainable agricultural unit which will continue to be utilised for its existing farming practices, primarily grazing.

The subdivision will therefore not undermine agricultural potential but will preserve and secure the continued viability of the remainder as an agricultural enterprise.

4. Need and Desirability

The subdivision is necessitated by the physical division of the land by the Vaalharts Water Scheme aqueduct, which already limits integrated use of Portion 25.

It will regularise land ownership in line with existing servitudes and land uses.

It will facilitate community-beneficial institutional development (church activities).

It will ensure that the bulk of the land (over 1 000 ha) remains intact and available for continued agricultural use.

The proposal is therefore consistent with the purpose of Act 70 of 1970, namely to prevent agricultural land from being fragmented in a manner detrimental to agricultural production.

5. CONCLUSION

The proposed subdivision of Portion 25 of the Farm Fourteen Streams 311 represents a rational and practical response to the physical division created by the Vaalharts aqueduct and existing legal servitudes. It secures government ownership of infrastructure land, enables community-oriented institutional use of land that is otherwise agriculturally marginal, and retains a substantial and viable agricultural unit for grazing purposes. Approval of the subdivision in terms of Act 70 of 1970 is therefore both necessary and desirable
